Overview

The Nepal Bhutan Tour 7 Days, highlights the very best of these two fascinating Himalayan countries in the time available. Designed for people short on time, the tour nevertheless delightfully portrays the intricate heritage and deeply bedded culture of both. Separated by the mighty Himalayas, discover the subtle differences of Hinduism and Buddhism. Nepal, for its Hindu wealth and practice, Bhutan for the intensity Buddhism holds on the country. Our Bhutan Nepal cultural tours vary in length, with this tour being the shortest.

We begin our tour of Bhutan in Thimphu, with visits to Tashichho Dzong, the Memorial Chorten and Buddha Dordenma Statue among others. On our second day, we are graced with some splendid Himalayan views when crossing the Dochula Pass (3102 meters) on our way to Punakha Dzong. Constructed by Ngawang Namgyal, in 1637–38, it is the second oldest and second largest dzong in Bhutan and one of its most majestic structures. A walk through terraced rice fields is also planned to Chimi Lhakhang, the famous fertility monastery that was built in 1456. The temple is significantly associated with the religious arts of Bhutan. In last day of Bhutan, you will visit the Tigers Nest Monastery, sat high up on a sheer cliff edge, it is Bhutans National treasure.

A wonderful flight over the glorious Himalayas brings us to Kathmandu, to savor the riches of The Kathmandu Valley. On arrival in Kathmandu, we spend the afternoon on visits to the famous Hindu pilgrimage cremation site of Pashupatinath and the nearby Buddhist stupa, Boudhanath.

The following day an optional early morning mountain flight to view Mount Everest is recommended. Later in the morning we visit the ancient medieval town of Bhaktapur, with its wealth of ancient temples and ornate squares. From Bhaktapur, we drive high into the hills to Nagarkot, a peaceful hill station famous for its brilliant sunrise over the mighty Himalayas.

On our return to Kathmandu, we wind up our sightseeing with visits to Patan Durbar Square, Swayambunath and Kathmandu Durbar Square. With our time in Nepal almost over, our last evening is spent with a cultural show and dinner.
