Your Journey day by day

Day 01 : Arrival and welcome at Kathmandu

After landing in Kathmandu, our Asia Experiences representative will approach you with a placard in the arrival section. You will receive authentic Nepali hospitality with a colorful garland made from the seasonal flowers here. After a quick introduction, he/she will take you to your hotel (Location: Thamel) in our private AC vehicle. In the way, you can experience the busy city life of Kathmandu and will have a brief orientation session of this Nepal-Bangladesh tour. You can head out for the street tour of Thamel in the evening or rest in your hotel for today. Overnight at a hotel in Kathmandu.

Day 02 : Kathmandu tour with Patan

Our tour day of today highlights five of the UNESCO heritage sites of Kathmandu and Patan. These historical, religious and cultural destinations are a great way to more about the ancient central Malla kingdom of Nepal. We will start our heritage tour today with a visit to Swyambhunath temple or "The Monkey Temple." This stupa is one of the oldest Buddhist temples in Nepal of the UNESCO world heritage list and is a pilgrimage for both Hindu and Buddhist devotees. We will pay a brief visit to the temple of Pashupatinath next. Hindu devotees all over the world visit this significant shrine of Lord Shiva besides the holy Bagmati River. From here we will visit the stupa of Boudhanath. The area reflects Tibetan Buddhism in this country and is the biggest Stupa of Nepal. We will then drive to the Patan or Lalitpur city and visit Patan Durbar Square premises here. We will return to Kathmandu from Patan and rest for the day here. Overnight at Kathmandu.

Day 03 : Kathmandu-Chitwan by drive/flight

Early in the Morning, we will take a short drive of about an hour to the Nagarkot village in the hills of the outskirts of Bhaktapur city. The sunrise view over the Himalayas from the village top view tower here is among the best in the world. After some time here, we will return to Kathmandu making a brief stop in Bhaktapur in the way. We can either fly (25 mins) or drive (6 hrs.) to Chitwan as our second destination of today. From the drive/flight, we will head straight to our hotel in Chitwan. You can take an evening tour to the local villages of Tharu people nearby and explore their lifestyle in the evening. A Tharu cultural program in the hotel will be a perfect way to end our day showcasing their traditional dresses, dance, and culture. Overnight at Chitwan.

Day 04 : Chitwan National Park

After breakfast, we will head towards of Chitwan National Park entrance. We will start our Jeep/elephant (optional) safari shortly after taking our permits to enter the park. This safari is one of the best in the whole Asia continent providing us the opportunities to encounter some very rare wild animals and birds. The Royal Bengal Tiger and One-horned Rhinoceros are the major attractions here alongside many other species of Mammals, birds, and reptiles. After the Safari, we will visit the elephant breeding center and egg hatchery in the premises of the park. View the sunset over the Narayani River and rest in your hotel. Overnight at Chitwan.

We will drive to the airport after breakfast and fly to Rajshahi in the morning. We'll drive to the historical Paharpur making a brief stop to visit the Kusumba Mosque in our way. This mosque was built in the period of 14th to the 16th century, and the architecture and stone-carved art here reflects the components of that era. After some time here, we will drive to the UNESCO world heritage site of Somapura Mahavihara in Paharpur. This site is the most significant archeological sites in Bangladesh. The remains of walls enclose many statues, inscriptions, terracotta Plaques, coins, and ceramics aging back to the 4th century or older. A traditional Buddhist stupa lies in its center. We will then visit the tribal villages and witness the local lifestyle of Paharpur. We will continue our drive after a visit here to the Bogra city today. Overnight at a hotel in Bogra.

Day 08 : Bogra Tour, Drive to Rajshahi and visit Puthiya temple.

Our Bogra tour will primarily focus on three of the major archeological sites of the area alongside the visit of the local village areas. Mahasthangrah with Govinda Bhita, Basu Bihar and Gokul Medh are our three destinations for Bogra today. Each of these sites holds many significant remains of the people, monastery, and palace situated in these areas from the period of the 3rd century to the 7th. With our local guide, you will know all the essential information about these places. Try some of the regional cuisines in the villages surrounding these areas where the people are friendly and welcoming.

After the Bogra visit, we will drive back to Rajshahi. We will visit the Puthia temple after reaching Rajshahi. It is a complex with one of the most extensive collections of historic Hindu temples in Bangladesh. The temples here are centuries old with beautiful wood/stone carvings and sculptures. The architecture of Puthiya temple is inspired mainly by Jor-Bangla and Jaipuri style. After a brief exploration, we will return to our hotel in Rajshahi. Overnight at Rajshahi.

Day 09 : Rajshahi tour and flight to Dhaka

We will visit some of the major destinations in Rajshahi today before our flight back to Dhaka. Rajshahi was and is famous all over the world for the high-quality Rajshahi silk produced in the city. We will visit the central park of Rajshahi after our breakfast. The park and zoo is a great place to loosen a bit and enjoy a peaceful time here. You can visit some local bazaar area and try the local cuisine here returning to your hotel. We will drive to the airport and board a flight to Dhaka. In our spare time today, we will visit some of the other sites left in Dhaka. You can visit the local fish market in the evening and watch some local trading techniques in Bangladesh. Overnight at a hotel Dhaka.

Day 10 : Flight to Yangon

After breakfast, we will visit some of the more places in Dhaka depending upon our time of flight to Yangon. After landing in Yangon, our Myanmar representative will approach you and transfer you to your hotel. As a nation with more than 4,500 Pagodas, we have some of the major ones here at Yangon too. You will visit some of these Pagodas today out of which the Sule Pagoda, Bitathaung Pagoda, and Chauk Htat Kyi will be the major ones. Our highlight of the Myanmar tour is undoubtedly the beautiful Shwedagon Pagoda here which we will visit today. In the evening the whole city glows up making these pagodas light even more. Here, you can try some delicious local cuisine inspired by Cambodia, Laos, China, India, and Vietnam. Overnight at a hotel in Yangon.

Day 11 : Yangon to Bagan by Flight

You will take a flight of about 1.5 hrs to Bagan after your breakfast in Yangon today. Bagan was the ancient capital of Burma and is the city with the highest density of Pagodas in it. Over the green plains, we can view over 2000 Buddhist monuments (Shrines, Monastery, and pagodas) in Bagan. You will visit the Ananda, Htilomino, and Gu Byauk Ki temples as the first part of the day. Spend some time exploring the Nyaung U market and try some local delicacies here. Visit the Shwe Zigon Pagoda and Kyansitta Umin here and continue your tour of the other places in the city.
