Your Journey day by day

Day 01 Flight to Tibet Lhasa from Mainland China (Beijing/Chengdu/Chongqing/Kunming)

*Please note that travelers need to obtain a China visa in their home country and spend a night in mainland China (such as Beijing, Chengdu, Chongqing, or Kunming) in order to obtain the Tibet Travel Permit. This permit will be provided in hard copy at the hotel before your arrival. We would be happy to assist you in booking a hotel for one night in any city in China.

Asia Experiences would like to extend a warm welcome to Lhasa! Upon arrival, you will be greeted by your English-speaking Tibetan guide and driver who will accompany you to your hotel. As Lhasa is one of the highest cities in the world, we understand that the high altitude of Tibet can be challenging for some. We recommend taking your time to acclimate to the altitude. Rest assured that we will provide all the necessary support to ensure your well-being. To minimize any altitude sickness symptoms, it is important to drink plenty of water and get enough rest. Get ready for an unforgettable adventure!

Day 02 Lhasa Sightseeing

Meals: Breakfast

Our Lhasa Sightseeing tour starts after an early breakfast today. Our destinations today constitute the UNESCO world heritage sites as well. First, we will drive up to the majestic Potala Palace. As the most significant part of the history and culture of Lhasa, this palace was the ruling palace of the Dalai Lama for centuries. Potala palace houses some of the best art, culture, and murals that reflect the timeline of Tibet.

Next, we will head towards the Sera Monastery. Probably the most beautiful and lively monastery that we will be in this journey, the monks teach us a better way of life. Explore the courtyard and murals here reflecting Tibetan Buddhism. From Sera Monastery, we will make our way to the Jokhang Temple. It is the center of spirituality in Lhasa. The architecture of this masterpiece is inspired by Indian Vihara and Nepalese style. Also, explore the Barkhor Square surrounding the temple while you are there. Overnight at a hotel in Lhasa.

Day 03 Lhasa Sightseeing

Meals: Breakfast

We will resume the exploration of Lhasa first visiting the Drepung Monastery. Once among the largest in the world home to over 10,000 monks, you can still take a peek into centuries-old components of Tibetan Buddhism here. For a complete experience try being here in the Shoton Festival when you can witness the unfolding of a giant mural and explore many other Buddha sculptures around the monastery. From here we will make our way to Mentsekang. You can take a glance at the Tibetan art of healing and medicine here.

The Summer Palace of the Dalai Lamas, Norbulingka palace is next in our list of the visit. The palace itself is massive with fine cultural relics centuries-old and important. But the garden here adds more reason to visit this wonderful Palace. On the premises of the palace, one can have a look of thousands of sublime sculptures reflecting art and history. After the visit, we will return to the hotel and rest for the day.

Day 04 Lhasa - Gyantse (3950m) -Shigatse (3900m)

Meals: Breakfast

After breakfast, we will prepare and start our overland tour from Lhasa to Kathmandu. We will drive to Shigatse via Gyantse tour today. The road trip from Lhasa quickly joins the friendship highway and towards the Khamba La pass at 4794 meters. For the first part of the drive, you can savor the breathtaking views of Yamdrok-Tso Lake and Nazin Kang Sa Mountain (7252 m). Heading towards Gyantse, you can also enjoy the sightings of snow-capped mountains and massive glaciers from the road. We will pass small Tibetan settlements where we can try some snacks before reaching the town of Gyantse. This historically significant town is in a beautiful valley and was one of the major cities where multiple trading routes were mixed. Our stay here will be brief, and we will visit some of the dzong ad monasteries in the stop. Our journey continues for about a couple of hours from Gyantse and ends today at Shigatse. The second-largest city in Tibet, Shigatse is beautiful and full of life. We will visit the Tashilupo monastery which is the seat of Panchen lamas of Tibet and one of the largest functioning monasteries here. Overnight at a hotel in Shigatse.
