Trip Overview

Nepal Tibet Luxury Tour offers abundant natural beauty, cultural richness, and spiritual calmness. Nepal, the beautiful Himalayan nation, allures everyone with its snow-capped peaks and stunning landscapes. Visit the culturally vibrant, and artistically rich, Kathmandu Valley which houses numerous iconic landmarks. Only inside Kathmandu Valley, there are 7 UNESCO-listed World Heritage Sites that depict historical, cultural, and religious significance. The tourist hub, Pokhara fascinates with its picturesque vistas and unique landmarks. Sunrise views over majestic snow-covered peaks are not to be missed. The UNESCO-listed Chitwan National Park immerses visitors in the lap of nature through its Jungle Safari, and diverse flora and fauna.

Tibet, the 'Roof of the World' welcomes visitors to its majestic capital Lhasa city which is imbued with a profound spiritual aura. The deep-rooted Tibetan Buddhism, architecturally impressive structures, well-preserved Buddha images, Thangkas, paintings, and murals all boast the grandeur of Tibet. It houses several monasteries and remarkable UNESCO-listed sacred sites. The overland tour to Rongbuk Monastery (Everest Base Camp) traversing Yamdrok Lake and the Tashilhunpo Monastery enriches the excitement of this tour. Interact with the locals and immerse yourself in the beauty of Tibet, while respecting and honoring its cultural norms. The private tour with a flexible itinerary adds a supreme experience of nature's wonders and cultural treasures.

Your Journey day by day

Day 01 Arrive in Kathmandu

Time: 15 min drive Accomodation: Dwarika's Hotel

Day 02 Kathmandu Sightseeing: Pashupatinath, Bouddhanath and Bhaktapur Durbar Square

Time: 4-6 hrs Meals: Breakfast Accomodation: Dwarika's Hotel

We continue the Kathmandu sightseeing. After breakfast, we visit the holy Pashupatinath Temple. One of the most essential Hindu temples in Nepal is dedicated to Lord Shiva. This World Heritage Site temple is situated on the bank of the Bagmati river. In the surroundings of the temple, there is a huge statue of the Ox. Visit the small shrines and other temples, and see the Sadhus.

Not far from there is another World Heritage Site called Boudhanath. This stupa is one of the biggest stupas in Nepal. This holy stupa is of great significance to Tibetan Buddhists. Many people perform the kora ritual by circulating the big dome in a clockwise direction. In the surroundings, you can also visit other monasteries. You can hear Tibetan praying chants, and smell the fragrance of butter lamps and incense which makes the place very delightful.

After lunch, we proceeded towards beautiful and ancient Bhaktapur city for sightseeing. This is also listed in the World Heritage site which is one of the best examples of architecture and well-preserved culture. The Durbar Square has several attractions such as the 55-window Palace, Nyatpole Temple, Siddhi Laxmi Temple, the Golden Gate, the National Art Museum, and so on. Besides this, get an amazing view of skillful porters making pots, wood carvings, and many handicrafts goods. You can buy some goods if you wish to or like. Also, try the famous Juju Dhau (King Curd) a special curd or yogurt prepared by locals. For memories, click some pictures and back to Kathmandu. Overnight in a luxury hotel.

Day 09 Lhasa Sightseeing: Potala Place, Jokhang Temple, and Barkhor Street

Meals: Breakfast Accomodation: St. Regis

The first day in Lhasa commences with sightseeing. Early we visit the famous Potala Palace which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The former winter palace of Dalai Lama lies at an elevation of 3750m from the sea level. At present, the palace is a museum that has several Buddhist murals, thangkas, mandalas, decorated stupa tombs, and audience halls. The palace is a 13-storey building that contains over 1,000 rooms, 10,000 shrines, and approx. 200,000 statues.

Next, we explore the holy Jokhang temple in the compound of the Potala Palace. This UNESCO-listed World Heritage Site has the gold statue of Jowo Rinpoche. Tibetan Buddhists considered this place as the spiritual center. Nearby this temple is the famous Barkhor Street. The street is famous for the kora ritual (circulating act) around the sacred Jokhang Temple. Besides this, it is a favorite shopping street for Tibetan goods and original crafts.

Overnight at a Luxury Hotel – St. Regis, Lhasa

Day 10 Lhasa Sightseeing: Drepung Monastery and Sera Monastery

Meals: Breakfast Accomodation: St. Regis

You visit the two essential monasteries during today's Lhasa sightseeing. First, you visit the Drepung Monastery which was founded in 1416. One of the Great three largest monasteries of the Gelug School of Tibetan Buddhism. It used to be the seat of the central government before the Potala Palace. The academic study standard here is considered high so that's why it is popularly known as the 'Nalanda of Tibet'

After lunch, explore the Sera Monastery which is also one of the Great three largest monasteries in Tibet. It was founded in 1419 and has a Great Assembly Hall and three popular colleges i.e. the Sera Je Dratsang, the Sera Me Dratsang, and the Ngakpa Dratsang. The colorful rock painting of Buddha, three sand mandalas, and the Tibetan religious text printing house are the prime attractions. The major highlight here is the interesting monk debate in the courtyard at around 3-5 p.m.

Overnight at a Luxury Hotel – St. Regis, Lhasa

Day 11 Lhasa to Shigatse via Yamdrok Lake and Gyantse

Time: 5-6 hours Meals: Breakfast Accomodation: Hilton Shigatse

After breakfast, we will prepare and start our overland tour to Everest Base Camp (Rongbuk Monastery). We will drive to Shigatse via Gyantse tour today. The road trip from Lhasa quickly joins the friendship highway and towards the Khamba La pass at 4794 meters. For the first part of the drive, you can savor the breathtaking views of Yamdrok-Tso Lake and Nazin Kang Sa Mountain (7252 m). Heading towards Gyantse, you can also enjoy the sightings of snow-capped mountains and massive glaciers from the road. We will pass small Tibetan settlements where we can try some snacks before reaching the town of Gyantse. This historically significant town is in a beautiful valley and was one of the major cities where multiple trading routes were mixed. Our stay here will be brief, and we will visit some of the dzong ad monasteries in the stop. Our journey continues for about a couple of hours from Gyantse and ends today at Shigatse. The second-largest city in Tibet, Shigatse is beautiful and full of life. We will visit the Tashilupo monastery which is the seat of Panchen lamas of Tibet and one of the largest functioning monasteries here.

Overnight at a Luxury Hotel – Hilton Shigatse, Shigatse

Day 12 Drive to Tingri - towards Rongbuk Monastery (Everest Base Camp)

Time: 5-6 hours Meals: Breakfast Accomodation: Pingcuo Kangsang EBC Oxygen Rich

The drive of today towards the famous Rongbuk Monastery / Everest Base Camp from Shigatse is packed with wonderful views of the landscape and natural scenery. The road is smooth, and we will be passing the highest point of the tour, the Gyatchu La pass at 5,220 m today. We will first cross Lhatse and drive through a pass nearby. Moving on from small stops where we will have our lunch, we will pass by Tingri village. Today, we recommend you to stay at Tashi Zong Village in Tingri because there are no any good (luxury) hotel in Rongbuk area. Next day morning, we will see the sunrise from Guwa La pass and drive to Rongbuk via Eco Bus.

> *Important Note about Rongbuk area:
> - Accommodation in Rongbuk/EBC is very limited. Since Rongbuk is a remote area, expect the accommodation to be very basic. There are a few guesthouses that provide twin-sharing rooms with bunk beds and the bathroom is also outside the guesthouse.
> - If you stay at Tashi Zong, the next day early morning drive Guwa La pass to view the sunrise with Mt. Everest then drive to Rongbuk/Everest Base Camp.

Essential Information

Nepal Tibet Luxury Trips

Nepal and Tibet are both closer to each other which lies in South Asia. Nepal is a small land-locked country and Tibet is the sovereign region of China. The Himalayan ranges, diverse landscapes, cultural heritages, and Buddhist culture are some similarities between this naturally beautiful Nepal and Tibet. Despite the similarities, the way of living and the culture have their uniqueness. The ancient monasteries, temples, stupas, and cultural heritages are well-preserved and have maintained their authenticity. The architecture is very impressive and the finest. Not only the heritages, but both also have other major attractions. Both are suitable for adventurous fun activities, nature walks, and short hikes. Travelers can relax at the finest luxury hotels or resorts. Hence, a Luxury trip is possible in Nepal and Tibet.

How to Plan a Luxury Nepal Tibet Tour?

Luxury Nepal Tibet Tour planning is easy and possible if done in the right way with the consultation of a trusted travel agency. Both these destinations have luxury hotels with luxury facilities and comforts. Book with a reliable and registered travel agency that specializes in luxury tours and can fulfill all your needs on time.

Find the best travel agency

The travel agency arranges the trip by providing the best travel assistance which makes the trip hassle-free, smooth, and successful. So, find the best travel agency that specializes in organizing the Luxury trip and can arrange for both destinations effectively and meet all the needs for the luxury trip. The best way to select the best travel agency is by looking for their reviews, their client feedback, and their value for their service. Tibet travel requires pre-arranged tours which is possible through the assistance of a reputed and registered travel agency. Kathmandu is the only international destination besides China that has a direct flight to Tibet. Travelers can either go from Kathmandu or from China to travel to Tibet. All your travel permits and other necessary arrangements are looked after by the travel agency. So, choose the best and most trusted travel agency that can satisfy all your travel needs and make the best arrangements. Nepal travel doesn't require a pre-arranged tour but having a reliable travel agency's assistance makes the tour smooth, effective, and memorable.

Taste the most authentic cuisines in Nepal and Tibet

Cuisines are another highlight of this Nepal-Tibet tour. This tour allows you to discover and try new cuisines of different ethnicities which is a unique and new taste for travelers. Food is one of the ways to connect with the people and the place to which you travel. Nepal is a country with diverse ethnicities, cultures, traditions, and religions. Thus, travelers can find diversity in food and drinks. Many might find similarities in the food to that of the neighboring nations India and China. No doubt, there is a huge influence from these nations. But, authentic Nepalese cuisine is different and has its unique ingredients, flavors, spices, and techniques in making. The staple diet of Nepal is Dal-Bhat served with lentil soups and some fresh vegetable curry or meat. The ethnic Newari dishes like Samay Baji set, Yomari, Chatamari, Bara, Wo, Tibetan Momos, Thukpa, Syabhale, Thakali food, Sel Roti, Dhindo, and Gundruk are some of the famous cuisines you can taste in Nepal. The famous authentic drinks are Chhyang (Rice beer), local rakshi (alcohol), and Tongba. Tibetan cuisine is also one of a kind. There are not so many varieties like that in Nepal but the cuisines of Tibet are tasty. Yak meat and potatoes are mostly used ingredients for cooking. Some famous Tibetan foods are Tsampa, Tibetan momo, Tibetan bread, Tibetan noodles with meat or vegetables, Thenthuk, Syaphale, tomato & egg soups, noodle soups, and hotpot. Tibetan Butter Tea is a famous drink that they enjoy with tsampa. Tibetans don't eat seafood and it may be hard to find seafood in Tibet.

Hire an expert tour guide and private driver with a cozy vehicle

The best way to experience the Nepal Tibet Luxury Tour is by hiring an expert tour guide along with a private driver and a cozy vehicle. For Tibet Luxury tours, a tour guide and a private driver are compulsory. A private vehicle is cozy and spacious to travel and the company of a private driver and a guide makes it more fun and memorable. Travelers can travel safely and freely without worrying about getting scammed. In the context of Nepal, there is no such requirement to hire an expert and a private driver. But, the luxury Nepal tour package is inclusive of an expert guide, a private driver, and a private vehicle. The private vehicle service is readily available at your service all the time throughout the tour.

Enjoy one-to-one travel consultant service
