

Nepal Tibet Thailand Myanmar Tour

A Nepal Tibet Thailand, and Myanmar tour mesmerizes travelers with the historical, natural, and cultural marvels of each destination at its best

Overview

A Nepal Tibet Thailand, and Myanmar tour mesmerizes travelers with the historical, natural, and cultural marvels of each destination at its best. It includes destinations from South Asia and Southeast Asia that have some similarities and dissimilarities simultaneously. The combined tour of 4 nations has something to offer for everyone. This tour surprises visitors with astonishing landmarks, natural phenomena, iconic cultural sites, and authentic and exotic foods.

Nepal is a beautiful small country rich in its history, culture, and natural wonders. Visit cultural and UNESCO-listed sites. Explore ancient cities (Nagarkot, Panauti, Dhulikhel, and Namobuddha) that have well-preserved old cultures and traditions to date. Adore a beautiful sunrise view and snow-capped mountains including Everest from Nagarkot. Enjoy natural greenery, interact with friendly locals, and try authentic cuisines.

Tibet is a spiritual destination that many travelers might find mysterious. The iconic landmarks such as Potala Palace, Norbulingka Palace, Barkhor Street, Sera, and Drepung monasteries should not be missed during Lhasa sightseeing. Yamdrok Lake is naturally phenomenal and an excursion to this tranquil lake is enthralling.

Thailand is a popular top most visited tourist destination in Southeast Asia. This tour includes a tour to two amazing destinations Chiang Mai and Bangkok renowned for their unique culture and lifestyle.

Explore the historical, cultural, and natural attractions including a Thai street foods tour, Thai spas, and nightlife.

Myanmar is a renowned destination for its thousands of gilded pagodas and gorgeous landscapes. Sightsee Yangon which has a rich culture & tradition, and is abundant with scenic pagodas and temples. Explore the ancient city of Bagan which is listed on the UNESCO site. Sightseeing archaeological sites, architecturally beautiful Buddhist stupas, pagodas, and temples. Don't miss a hot air balloon ride over this mesmerizing city and exotic foods.

Highlights

- Nepal: 4 Nights in Kathmandu with Bhaktapur Durbar Square, Pashupatinath, Boudhanath, Patan, Swayambhunath Stupa, Nagarkot, waterfall, cave, lake and Shanti stupa.
- Tibet: 4 Nights in Lhasa, Tibet with Potala Palace, Drepung Monastery, Sera Monastery, and Norbulingka Palace, Yamdrok Lake.
- Thailand: 5 Nights (Elephant Jungle Sanctuary, Wat Rong Khun, Chiang Mai Night Safari Park, Wat Arun, Wat Pho, The Grand Palace, Wat Phra Kaew, Dusit Palace)
- Myanmar: 6 Nights (Shwedagon Pagoda, Sule Pagoda, Chaukhtatgyi Buddha Temple, and Kandawgyi Lake, Bupaya Pagoda, Hot Air Balloon, Mount Popa, Inle Lake, Phaung Daw U Pagoda etc)

Outline

1. Choose your own departure date as it is your private tour.
2. Select the comfort level of accommodation. The tour cost depends on your hotel choice.
3. Adjust activities to cater to special interests
4. Modify any aspect of the tour as needed. Flexible tour duration, activities and more.
5. Flexible travel route (Start from Kathmandu and end to Yangon, Myanmar or vice-versa)

Your Journey day by day

Day 01 : Arrive in Kathmandu and apply for a Tibet Visa

Arrive at the Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu and complete all the customs. Apply for a Nepal Visa which only takes 15-20 minutes to complete. Our representative welcomes you at the airport and transfers to the hotel for refreshment. Then, travel to the Chinese Visa Centre in Kathmandu to apply for a Tibet Visa where you must submit your original passport, passport-size photos, and biometrics. It takes 4 working days to get a Tibet Visa. As the evening is free, visit nearby places or just stroll around. Spend a night in a hotel.

(Note: You don't require a Chinese Visa to apply for a Tibet Visa from Nepal.)

Day 02 : Kathmandu Sightseeing

Kathmandu is the capital of Nepal and the most amazing landmark to explore. The city is a treasure trove abundant with several UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Visit the holy Buddhist pilgrimage site Boudhanath Stupa which holds great historical and cultural significance. From there, head to the holy Hindu temple of Pashupatinath. It is dedicated to Lord Shiva and numerous Hindu devotees visit this temple annually.

End your tour with a visit to the culturally and historically significant Patan Durbar Square. The Durbar Square is artistically magnificent and visually pleasing. Explore beautiful attractions such as the Golden Temple, Rato Machhindrantah Temple, Chwoks (Mul, Sundari, Keshav Narayan), Krishna Mandir, Mahaboudha Temple, Patan Museum, etc. Don't miss out on visiting handicrafts and souvenir shops and trying authentic Newari cuisine. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Patan Durbar Square: Spectacular ancient temples, monuments, and courtyards and artistically fascinating architecture
- Boudhanath Stupa: One of the biggest Buddhist Stupas in Nepal
- Pashupatinath Temple: A religious significant holy Hindu temple

Day 03 : Bhaktapur Durbar Square, Changu Narayan, Nagarkot Sightseeing

The morning begins with a scenic drive to sightsee the beautiful Bhaktapur Durbar Square. It is the best-preserved medieval city in Nepal with remarkable Victorian-style temples, artistic courtyards, and artistically phenomenal historic and cultural attractions. Visit the mesmerizing Nyatpole Temple, Dattatreya Temple, the 55-window palace, the Pottery Square, etc. in the vicinity. Try out local Newari cuisine and the famous Juju Dhau (King Curd).

Next, drive to the Changu Narayan Temple which is a hilltop near Bhaktapur. It is regarded as one of the oldest Hindu temples in Nepal. The wood and stone carvings are the prime attractions which represent the skillful craftsmanship of the Licchavi period.

Then, enjoy a scenic drive to the nearest lovely hill station Nagarkot at an elevation of 2,175 meters. The lush greenery, terraced fields, fabulous mountain views, and peaceful environment attract everyone. In the evening, enjoy the sunset views over the snow-covered Himalayan ranges. Spend a quality night admiring the surrounding beauty in a hotel.

(Optional Hiking: From Changu Narayan to Telkot for 2-3 hours for interested visitors.)

- Bhaktapur Durbar Square: Historically and culturally prominent best-preserved medieval city in Nepal
- Changu Narayan: Historically significant one of the oldest Hindu temples in Nepal
- Nagarkot: Hill station popular for sunrise and sunset views over the majestic Himalayas

Day 04 : Nagarkot to Panauti, Namu Buddha, & Dhulikhel

Wake up early and transfer to the Nagarkot View Tower Station. Adore the magical sunrise view over the 8 Himalayan ranges from east to west. If the weather is clear, get rewarded with the views of the world's highest Mt. Everest. Back to the hotel, have breakfast, and drive to the ancient Newari town of Panauti.

A real village tour experience in this ancient town where you get familiar with local Newari culture, tradition, and lifestyle. Interact with the locals, and learn or enjoy the sights of local farming. Try out some amusing Newari cuisine. Explore Brahmayani temple, Indreshwor temple, and Panauti Museum which offer great cultural and historical insights.

From Panauti, drive to the attractive village of Namo Buddha which is surrounded by greenery and has numerous monasteries. Admire the beauty of the village, meet the locals, and relish the breathtaking mountain vistas. Visit Thrangu Tashi Yangtse Monastery, Namu Buddha Temple, and the renowned stone replica of a young prince feeding to the dying Tigress.

Continue to drive to the beautiful Newari town of Dhulikhel to witness the Newari culture and architecture in the old town of Dhulikhel. If you wish to, go for an exciting zip-lining. Back to Kathmandu and collect a Tibet Group Visa. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Panauti: A rural beautiful ancient Newari village with local culture, tradition, and lifestyle
- Namo Buddha: One of the 3 main Sacred Buddhist Stupas
- Dhulikhel: A beautiful Newari town having amazing culture and architecture

Day 05 : Flight to Lhasa (Tibet)

Admiring the Himalayan scenery and its surroundings fly to Lhasa from Kathmandu. Arrive at Lhasa Gonggar Airport and get welcomed by our representative. Enjoying surrounding views, take a scenic 1.5-2 hours private vehicle ride to the hotel in Lhasa. Since Lhasa is at an elevation of 3,656 m, it is very much essential to take an acclimatization rest. To adjust to the surroundings make sure to stay hydrated, eat warm and healthy, and wear warm and comfortable clothes. Spend a night in a hotel.

Day 06 : Lhasa Sightseeing

Lhasa sightseeing begins with a visit to Jewel Park which is the prominent Norbulingka Palace listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The popular Shoton festival is organized annually here.

Next, visit the important monasteries of the Gelug School of Tibetan Buddhism Sera and Drepung Monasteries. Explore these monasteries and learn about the significance of Tibetan Buddhism. Attend the most popular debate session at Sera Monastery between 3-5 pm. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Norbulingka Palace: Tibetan palace with its remarkable architecture that organizes the popular Shoton festival annually
- Drepung Monastery: One of the largest revered monasteries in Tibet and learning center of Tibetan Buddhism and practice meditation
- Sera Monastery: Notable monastery with stunning architecture, assembly hall, decorative statues, murals, & scriptures, and unique debate sessions

Note: (Interested travelers can attend the grand Princess Wencheng Live Drama after dinner. Through drama, music, and dances it displays the historical and cultural ties between the Tubo and Tang dynasties.)

Day 07 : Lhasa Sightseeing

Visit the iconic Potala Palace, holy Jokhang Temple, and popular Barkhor Street which are listed as UNESCO World Heritage Sites. These landmarks signify the great Tibetan religion and culture through their preservation, architecture, and learnings. Wear appropriate clothes while exploring Lhasa as the religious significance is very high. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Potala Palace: A noteworthy palace that is now a museum prominent for its impressive architecture, and 13 storeys of buildings with (1,000 rooms, 10,000 shrines, and approx. 200,000 statues)
- Jokhang Temple: Revered spiritual Buddhist temple known for its incredible architecture influenced by Tibetan, Nepalese, Tang, and Indian Dynasty
- Barkhor Street: Holy Street for performing the kora ritual around the holy Jokhang temple, learning Tibetan culture, purchasing Tibetan original goods and crafts

Note: (Interested travelers can attend the Tibetan Family Kitchen class between 4:30 pm to 8 pm where they can cook, and dine with family and friends.)

Day 08 : Yamdrok Lake Excursion

In the morning, take a scenic ride to Yamdrok Lake crossing Kampala Pass at an elevation of 4,794 m. From the pass, relish the wonderful view of Mt. Nojin Kangsang (7,191m), and after a few hours arrive at Yamdrok Lake. It is among one of the largest of the Great Three Sacred Lakes in Tibet. Adore the freshwater Yamdrok Lake and the surrounding mountain vistas. Have lunch, complete the excursion, and return to Lhasa. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Yamdrok Lake: One of the sacred freshwater lakes in Tibet

Day 09 : Flight to Chiang Mai (Thailand) via Kunming

Fly to Kunming from Lhasa takes about 2 hours and 10 minutes. After completing all the formalities, take a direct scheduled flight to Chiang Mai. It takes about 1 hour and 25 minutes. Get welcomed by our representative and transferred to the hotel. Take some rest and the evening is free to explore on your own. Enjoy the night market, and savor street foods. Spend a night in a hotel.

Day 10 : Chiang Mai sightseeing

Chiang Mai sightseeing is a full-day exploration of the Elephant Jungle Sanctuary. Wake up early and ride on the shuttle bus to the South of Chiang Mai. Admire the local farming areas, beautiful forests, and hills while traveling for about 1.5 hours. Spend the whole day in the semi-natural environment playing with elephants. Get close to the elephants, feed them, and learn about their behavior. Enjoy the mud spa with the elephants and also bathe them in the river. Enjoy a traditional meal at the sanctuary. Return to Chiang Mai and if you wish visit Warorot Market for shopping. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Elephant Jungle Sanctuary: An ethical and sustainable sanctuary where you can feed, bathe, and mud spa elephants.

Day 11 : Drive to Chiang Rai and Visit Karen Long Neck Village

Along with the guide, drive to Chiang Rai in the morning at around 7:00 AM. Admiring the surrounding beauty ride for about 3.5 hours. Visit the mesmerizing Wat Rong Khun, widely known as ‘The White Temple’. The artistically fascinating temple features Buddhist imagery, impressive architecture, and grand decorations.

Then, head to the unique Karen Long Neck Village where you will meet Karen women wearing brass rings around their necks. It is a symbol of their ancient ethnic tradition which is still in practice. Explore the village, learn about their culture, and witness their weaving skills on a backstrap loom. You can also purchase traditional Karen textiles as souvenirs.

Continue to drive to the popular tourist attraction the ‘Golden Triangle’ which is locally named Sop Ruak as it is along the Mekong Riverside (Laos & Thailand border) which meets with the Ruak River (Myanmar & Thailand border). It is the place where the border of 3 nations meet i.e. Thailand, Laos, and Myanmar. Relish the picturesque views, and admire serene landscapes, beautiful villages, and ancient temples. Get mesmerized by the huge Golden Buddha statue. Take a boat rental for a 20-minute boat ride and cherish the view of the Golden Triangle. Create memories and take many pictures. Visit nearby souvenir shops and return to Chiang Mai after completing the exploration. Spend a night in a hotel.

(Optional: Night Safari Tram Ride for interested travelers at Chiang Mai Night Safari Park.)

- Wat Rong Khun: Architecturally mesmerizing unique White Temple
- Karen Long Neck Village: Ancient village where women wore brass rings around their necks
- Golden Triangle: Popular tourist attraction with a giant Golden Buddha statue where the border of 3 nations meet
- Chiang Mai Night Safari Park: The world’s largest and second-best nocturnal zoo with a unique night safari tram ride

Day 12 : Flight to Bangkok and Sightseeing

Fly to Bangkok as scheduled which takes about 1 hour and 15 minutes. Get welcomed by our representative and transferred to the hotel. Take some rest and the day is free to explore. Commence sightseeing at amazing culturally significant temples Wat Arun and Wat Pho. Wat Arun houses the statue of mythical creatures and has an impressive Khmer-style prang. The panoramic view of the surroundings is breathtaking and explore the impressive Thai art and architecture.

Take a short boat ride across Chao Phraya River to reach Wat Pho which is Bangkok’s one of the oldest and largest temples. It is Thailand’s first public university which has the Reclining Buddha as its prime attraction. It is also popular for its traditional Thai massage school to learn and receive the art of ancient healing. In the evening, visit food stalls, and don’t forget to try tasty mango sticky rice food. If you wish to go for premium shopping, visit Pratunam or Siam Square. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Wat Arun: Popular as the ‘Temple of the Dawn’

- Wat Pho: Renowned as the ‘Temple of the Reclining Buddha’

Day 13 : Bangkok Sightseeing

Today Bangkok sightseeing commences with a visit to some of the popular tourist attractions. Visit The Grand Palace, Wat Phra Kaew, Dusit Palace, and in the evening visit the popular Khao San Road. Explore various food stalls, and visit tattoo studios and massage shops. Spend a night in a hotel.

- The Grand Palace: The grand complex houses the Thai Monarch residence, administrative offices, and famous Wat Phra Kaew
- Wat Phra Kaew: Temple of Emerald Buddha with phenomenal Thai architecture
- Dusit Palace: Iconic Royal Heritage Complex with numerous stunning buildings and gardens
- Khao San Road: Popular for street foods, massage shops, tattoo studios, etc.

Day 14 : Flight to Yangon, Myanmar, and Yangon Sightseeing

Fly to Yangon, the former capital of Myanmar is the largest city with a rich history and iconic landmarks. Get welcomed by our guide and transfer to the hotel for a short rest. Then, commence Yangon sightseeing with a visit to the grand Shwedagon Pagoda, Sule Pagoda, Chaukhtatgyi Buddha Temple, and Kandawgyi Lake. In the evening, visit food courts and enjoy tasty Burmese cuisine and other varieties. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Shwedagon Pagoda: A Golden Stupa with beautiful carvings and a spiritual center for Burmese
- Sule Pagoda: An ancient pagoda with impressive colonial architecture
- Chaukhtatgyi Buddha Temple: It houses the reclining Buddha statue which is one of the largest in Myanmar
- Kandawgyi Lake: Great place to enjoy a scenic boat ride and adore the views of stunning Shwedagon Pagoda

Day 15 : Flight to Bagan and Bagan tour

Fly to Bagan which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and worldwide popular for its Bagan Archaeological Zone. The well-preserved architecture and art from the medieval area reflect the great historical and cultural significance. Get welcomed by our representative and get transferred to the hotel. Take some rest and later commence Bagan sightseeing.

Visit Shwezigon Pagoda which is the sacred Buddhist Pilgrimage site renowned for its beautiful golden stupa and incredible structure. It holds great significance as there is a belief that it enshrines a bone and tooth of Gautama Buddha and houses relics and sacred artifacts.

Next, visit the Dhammayangyi Temple, which is the largest and widest temple in Bagan. It has great historical significance despite the interior of the temple is incomplete. Admire the structure that has impressive brickwork.

Then, explore nearby Ananda Pagoda, which is one of the most beautiful pagodas featuring gilded shikhara and impressive architecture. It houses four large magnificent Buddha images.

End your tour with a visit to one of the oldest monuments, Bupaya Pagoda situated on the banks of the holy Irrawaddy (Ayeyarwady) River. This pagoda translates to ‘gourd shape’ pagoda. Relish the sunset views from the banks of the Irrawaddy River.

The evening time is free to explore on your own. Stroll around or go for local food tours. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Shwezigon Pagoda: A sacred Buddhist Pilgrimage site that treasures the Lord Buddha’s bone and a tooth
- Dhammayangyi Temple: The largest and widest of all temples in Bagan
- Ananda Pagoda: One of the most beautiful pagodas with impressive architecture
- Bupaya Pagoda: Unique gourd-shaped prominent pagoda

Day 16 : Bagan sightseeing with Mt. Popa

You are in Bagan and if you don’t do the Bagan Hot Air Balloon Ride then, you are missing the real adventure. If you travel between the months of October to mid-April, give a try to a hot air balloon ride.

You get picked up early in the morning from the hotel and transferred to the balloon ride spot. Get treated with a light breakfast before the ride. Get into the hot air balloon and get rewarded with scenic landscapes and panoramic views of the grand pagodas of over 3000. To witness the sunrise view from the balloon ride is a magical and once-in-a-lifetime experience. As the balloon goes higher, get wider views of the architectural wonders of Bagan. This ride takes about 45 minutes to complete and upon completing the ride enjoy complimentary refreshments.

(Optional: Hot Air Balloon ride for interested visitors during the season.)

From there, drive to the foothills of the holy Mount Popa admiring the beautiful local villages on the way. It is a dormant volcano at an elevation of 1,518 m which is a holy pilgrimage site and home of the Nat Spirits. It is demanding to climb stairways of 777 steps but the panoramic views of the ancient city of Bagan and the conical peak of Taung Ma-Gyi from the top are rewarding. After spending some time, back to Bagan.

Bagan is a UNESCO Heritage Site with abundant historical and cultural heritages that are unique and have impressive architecture. Some popular attractive landmarks are the Bagan Archaeological Museum, Gawdawpalin Temple, Htilominlo Temple, Sulamani Temple, Thatbyinnyu Temple, Seinnyet Sister Temples, Dhammayazika Pagoda, Mingalazedi Pagoda, Mahabodhi Temple, etc. Visit these landmarks and in the evening go to the market for shopping or tours to the local food stalls. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Bagan Hot Air Balloon Ride: Awesome panoramic views of the grand pagodas of over 3000 with scenic landscapes and mesmerizing sunrise view
- Mount Popa: A holy pilgrimage site which is the best place to relish surrounding panoramic views of ancient Bagan city

- Bagan Archaeological Museum: Best place to get deep insights into Bagan's rich history and culture which houses numerous rare Bagan period objects (original Myazedi inscriptions, the Rosetta stone of Burma, etc.)
- Htilominlo Temple: A holy Buddhist temple recognized for its intricately carved stucco (contains ogresses and mythological animals)
- Thatbyinnyu Temple: The tallest temple in Bagan has artistically creative architecture

Day 17 : Flight to Heho, drive to Inle Lake (Sightseeing)

In the morning, fly to Heho Airport from Bagan which takes about 35 minutes. Get welcomed by our representative and transferred to Inle Lake in a private vehicle. Take a rest for a while in the hotel and begin Inle Lake Sightseeing.

The second-largest Inle Lake in Myanmar is a freshwater lake that lies at an elevation of 2,900 ft. The Intha people are the habitants who reside near several small villages along the lake's shores, and on the lake itself. Intha people have the amazing skill of paddling a boat with only one leg which is great to experience. This lake is home to varied species of aquatic creatures.

Begin with a visit to the Inthar Heritage House which is a traditional Shan home built up of recycled lumbers. Since there is a limited space, reservation in advance is essential. It is a great place for visitors as well as writers, researchers, environmentalists, etc. to study and learn in-depth about the lake, water creatures, and its surroundings. It is the physical home for the Inle Heritage Foundation projects (the Burmese Cat project, the Vocational Training Center, Green Practices, and the Water Watch project).

From here, take a scenic boat ride to the beautiful Ywama Village which is also part of a 5-day floating market. This is the largest village on Inle Lake which is popular for its traditional stilted houses. It also houses several beautiful monasteries and stupas. Explore the local lifestyle of the villagers, and visit the vibrant market where various local handicrafts and other goods are found. Relish the sight of floating gardens where various learn traditional farming techniques and see floating plant crops such as tomatoes, cucumbers, etc. Visit cultural attractions such as Nga Hpe Kyaung Monastery, and Phaung Daw U Pagoda. Back to the hotel for an overnight stay.

- Inthar Heritage House: An amazing place built of recycled lumbers that houses the Inle Heritage Foundation projects (the Burmese Cat project, the Vocational Training Center, Green Practices, and the Water Watch project)
- Ywama Village: Largest village on the Inle Lake popular for its traditional stilted houses
- Floating Gardens: Learn the traditional farming technique and see floating plant crops such as tomatoes, cucumbers, etc.
- Nga Hpe Kyaung Monastery (Jumping Cat Monastery): The oldest and largest wooden monastery in the area that houses ancient Buddha images
- Phaung Daw U Pagoda: Sacred Buddhist site that houses ancient 5 Buddha images covered in gold leaf

Day 18 : Inle Lake Sightseeing

Continue Inle Lake sightseeing on a long-tail motorboat to the fascinating and historic Indien Village admiring the surrounding scenery. The ancient pagodas, traditional craftsmanship, and Indien markets are prime attractions. This village is also part of the 5-day floating market. Don't miss out on exploring the phenomenal attractions of Nyaung Ohak Pagoda, and Shwe Indein Pagoda Complex. After completing the wonderful tour, back to the hotel. The evening is free so travel to Red Mountain Estate Vineyards which is the best place for wine tasting. This vineyard is one of the best places to enjoy the sunset view with panoramic views of the surroundings. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Floating Market: A 5-day market that floats to different villages each daily around the Inle Lake area
- Indie Village: Popular for its ancient pagodas, traditional craftsmanship, and Indein markets
- Nyaung Ohak Pagoda: An incredible architectural heritage with numerous stunning pagodas
- Shwe Indein Pagoda: A significant Buddhist cultural site that features various stupas of different sizes and designs
- Red Mountain Estate Vineyards: Best place for relishing sunset view, panoramic views, and wine tasting

Day 19 : Fly back to Yangon, Yangon Sightseeing

In the morning, fly back to Yangon and get transferred to the hotel. Rest for a while and continue Yangon sightseeing. Begin with a visit to the Yangon Heritage Trust Walking Tour. Explore the historical sites and admire the Yangon's colonial architecture. Through this tour, get to know closely the city's past and present.

Then, visit the largest St. Mary's Cathedral in Myanmar which has great historical and cultural significance. The Gothic architecture mesmerizes everyone. And the peaceful ambiance takes you to another world.

Next, visit the Yangon National Museum which provides deep insights into the art, history, and culture of Myanmar. It displays several ancient artifacts, traditional costumes, and historical documents. For art and history lovers, it is a place not to be missed.

End your day with a visit to Bogyoke Aung San Market which is an amazing place with an array of diverse products including local handicrafts, jewelry, textiles, and souvenirs. In the evening, food stalls are set. Enjoy shopping and try local foods. Spend a night in a hotel.

- Yangon Heritage Trust Walking Tour: Amazing place to explore the historical sites and Yangon's colonial architecture
- St. Mary's Cathedral: The largest cathedral in Myanmar with impressive Gothic architecture
- Yangon National Museum: Provides deep insights into the art, history, and culture of Myanmar
- Bogyoke Aung San Market: Vibrant market for a diverse range of goods (local handicrafts, jewelry, textiles, and souvenirs)

Day 20 : Final departure from Yangon, Myanmar

Our guide bids farewell and takes you to the airport for the final departure as your scheduled flight to your next destination. We hope you had a wonderful time and created some memorable memories in these combined Nepal Tibet Thailand Myanmar tours. Hope to see you again and have a safe journey.

Cost & Inclusion

Nepal :

- Airport pickups and drops service.
- Private ground transportation with A/C.
- Twin-sharing hotel accommodation.
- Local cultural tour guide with English speaking.
- Sightseeing entrance fees for museums and monuments.
- Breakfast in Nepal.

Tibet :

- Free bottled water;
- All necessary travel permits to Tibet;
- Entrance ticket fees for all the sight spots listed in the program;
- Private transportation in Tibet with experienced local Tibetan driver: Ranging from 4WD land cruiser to minibus depending on the group size and trip route (car gasoline is included);
- Private guide: English speaking local Tibetan guide;
- Accommodation as per your choice;
- Pick-up and send-off services at the beginning and end of the tour;
- Meals: only breakfasts are included while stay in hotels;
- Liability insurance;
- All government taxes;

Thailand :

- Airport pickups and drops service.
- Private ground transportation with air-conditioned.
- Hotel accommodation as per your preference.
- Breakfast at hotel.
- Local cultural tour guide with English speaking.
- Sightseeing entrance fees for museums and monuments.

Myanmar :

- Airport pickups and drops service.
- Private ground transportation with air-conditioned.
- Hotel accommodation as per your preference.
- Breakfast at hotel.
- Full meals in Myanmar.
- Local cultural tour guide with English speaking.

- Sightseeing entrance fees for museums and monuments.