Trip Overview

Bangladesh Tour – 2 nights 3 days, Dhaka, the ancient capital of Bengal during the great Mughal era, was the major commercial center exporting finest Muslin cotton throughout the world. Today, many people from all around the globe visit this beautiful city to explore the art aging from the Mughal to British era here besides BuriGanga. A megacity surrounds the old Dhaka now with the core of amazing culture, centuries-long art, great countryside, and living history in the Ganges delta.

Sonargaon is an excellent short trip from Dhaka treating you with the authentic Bengali culture only 27 km from the Bangladeshi capital. A popular adventure destination, Sonargaon was the previous capital (1610 m) and an important commercial center for a long period of these regions. Previously a Buddhist kingdom, this area was conquered by the Muslim rulers in the 13th century. Sonargaon (Previously Suvarnagrama) was a British colonial center in the 19th century, and it was then when it got its current name as the Panam city. Hindu Traders then entered this region and prospered through the business of Kantha or the Indigo-dyed Muslin. Hence, one can witness a mixed culture, art, architecture, and history. With the assist and aid experienced guides from Asia Experiences, one can make the most of this fantastic vacation. A tour of these two magnificent cities will give you an opportunity to know the present and glorious past of Bengal.
