Upon reaching the Guwahati Airport, you are welcomed by our representative. After fulfilling all the formalities, a scenic 3-hour drive to Shillong in a private vehicle. Enjoy the surrounding views and stunning landscapes. Transfer to the hotel and rest for a while.

If time permits, a short visit to Umiam Lake for refreshment. Locals called it Dam Site. The reservoir was built for hydroelectric power generation. The artificial lake is famous for water sports like rafting, kayaking, boating, water cycling, and scooting. Enjoy the wonderful scenery in the surrounding by boating. Witness the diverse flora and some species of birds flying around. Return to a hotel and stay overnight.

Note: Travelers traveling from Bhutan to Guwahati can visit through the following route:

By Road: Thimphu-Gelephu-New Bongai gaon- Guwahati

Day 02 Shillong to Cherrapunji (1.5hrs), return to Shillong (1.5hrs)

After breakfast, head towards Cherrapunji for an excursion. The place is commonly called Sohra. A full-day tour begins with a visit to the Nohkalikai Falls. The tallest plunge waterfall in India is impressive.

Then, a visit to the attractive cave called Mawsmai Cave. The fully lit cave in its natural formation makes it distinct from other caves. This cave is home to bats, insects, and some flora species.

A tour of the Thangkharang Park famous for its natural scenery of plains and green valleys and Kynrem Falls. The Khoh Ramrah Rock popularly called Shiva rock is another attraction here. The park is home to various species of plants and trees. A great place to get a close-up sight of Bangladesh plains.

The tour ends with a visit to the Seven Sister Waterfalls (Nohsngithiang Falls). The waterfall plunges from a high and rocky cliff in seven stages naming it seven sister waterfalls. When it rains, the view is more enthralling making a loud sound. A glimpse of a rainbow penetrating it after rainfall is magical. The waterfalls rush through green vegetation on the limestone from the cliff.

Return to Shillong and stay overnight in a hotel.

Day 03 Excursion to Shillong

The full-day excursion to Shillong commences after breakfast. A short hike to the highest point of Shillong which is Shillong Peak (1962m). The peak is in a semi-circular form and offers an exclusive view from the top. The lush green vegetation, Himalayas, Bangladesh plains, waterfalls, and panoramic city view are worth watching. Witness the religious sacred U Shulong site dedicated to the local deity Leishyllong. Horse riding facility is also available to reach Shillong Peak. Carrying some packed snacks is a great idea.

After the awesome view, return and visit the Mary Help of Christians Cathedral. The high arches, stained glass windows, and aesthetic design of the church are marvelous. The two levels of a chapel and colossal cathedral church are one of the most attractive churches in Shillong.

Next, a visit to the Butterfly Museum, a treat spot for nature and butterfly lovers. It is also called the Entomological Museum. The great collections of colorful butterflies, spiders, moths, and beetle species are here. A unique experience for tourists to witness diverse species in one place.

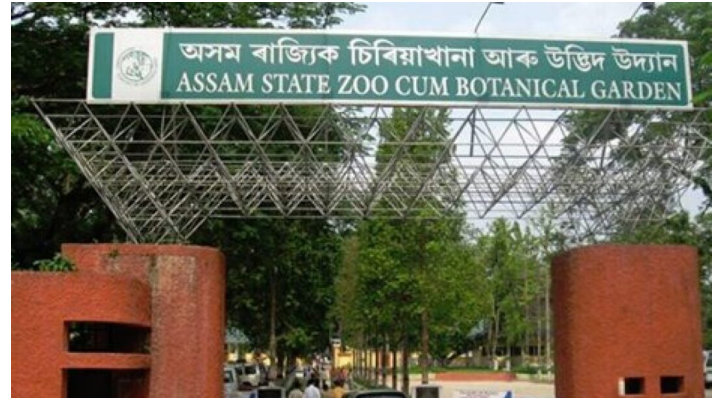

The three-tier waterfall Elephant Falls is at the foot of an elephant-shaped stone. The attractive part of this waterfall is that it falls in three successions. The waterfall view looks stunning from different vantage points.

Then, end the tour by visiting a horseshoe-shaped Ward Lake. A great place for boating and enjoying the natural scenery. The green garden with abundant flower beds in the vicinity of the Botanical Garden is astounding. The rare collections of orchids and other varieties of flora are attractions in the Botanical Garden. Also, tour around the small aviary to view a colorful collection of rare avifauna species. The wooden bridge in the middle of the lake gives an awesome view. One can also feed the fish in the lake.

In the evening, stroll around Bara Bazaar and Police Bazaar for shopping. Stay overnight at a hotel.

Day 04 Shillong to Guwahati (3hrs drive)

After breakfast, a pleasant drive to Guwahati in a private vehicle for about 3 hours. Upon reaching Guwahati, freshen up in a hotel. Have lunch or some snacks. A visit to the famous Shakti peeth called Kamakhya Temple. This sacred temple is one of the oldest and holds great cultural importance. The beautifully decorated temple with impressive designs have a massive dome. The Ambubachi festival is celebrated grandly in this temple. Attend a festival if you are here around that time.

From here, head towards Guwahati Zoo. The zoo is home to 113 diverse species of the animal kingdom. More than 900 animals, birds, and reptiles are there in the zoo. The zoo is situated in the vicinity of the botanical garden. Thus, not only animals but varieties of plants and trees are home to this zoo. Some exotic animals like one-horned rhinos, giraffes, and African ostriches are prime attractions.

After spending some fun time in the zoo, a time to visit Assam State Museum. The perfect place that gives insights into ancient and modern history, and culture of North-East India. It displays amazing artifacts and sculptures of the 5th to 12th century and some from the Second World War too.

At last, a visit to the Guwahati Planetarium. The explanation of the expanding universe in detail is a new and unique experience inside the planetarium. The Sky watching sessions and projected shows with special themes are a major highlight. Cosmic collision, Journey to the Stars, and Are we alone? Search for Life! is some show theme. The shows are available in Assamese, Hindi, and English languages. To experience the world of the universe is magical. A perfect way to end the Guwahati tour.

In the evening, explore the nearby markets. Visit the Maati Centre, Pragjyoti Assam Emporium, and NEDFi Haat for handloom products, handicrafts items, traditional clothing, local artworks, and organic aroma products. Don't miss out to explore Fancy Bazaar which is popular as Chandni Chowk of Guwahati. The famous place to buy Assamese Shawl (Gamchha), designer clothes, handicraft goods, bamboo pickles, and many more. Also, enjoy various street foods and sweets as there are several food joints here. After joyous sightseeing around Guwahati return to the hotel for an overnight stay.

Note: Tourists traveling to Bhutan can have a short half-day trip to Guwahati and proceed to Guwahati Airport for a scheduled flight to Paro, Bhutan.
