Mostly they traveled through economy transportation i.e. domestic buses. In European nations, they traveled by trains paying a low price. Budget travel is mostly done when the airfare price is low or offering special schemes. Or, they travel via economy class on a plane to reach their destination.

Luxury Travel uses luxurious transportation facilities. Travelers travel in business class on an airplane. Some even go for a private helicopter or domestic flight to reach on destination quickly. These foods are also good but budget travelers don’t get to experience exotic cuisines. Some budget travelers eat food at places offering special discounts after 9/10 pm.

The foods and drinks are exotic, hygienic, classy, nicely presented, and highly expensive in luxury travel. Travelers can experience extravagant meals which they don’t eat in their daily life. The foods and drinks are prepared in the most unusual and unique way. Travelers get the experience of trying the most delicious cuisines while doing luxury travel. They also enjoy a large buffet with varieties of exotic cuisines and drinks at their travel destinations.

Quality of Travel
