Your Journey day by day

Day 01 : Arrive at Kathmandu International airport

After landing in Kathmandu and clearing the customs apply for your visa at the airport. This will be easy and fast as well. Our representative will welcome you and transfer you to the hotel. In the evening take a stroll around and take a glance at local culture here.

*Please note that entering Tibet from Kathmandu, it is necessary to apply for a Tibet Visa at the Chinese Embassy in Kathmandu, which typically takes a minimum of 4 working days to process. As part of this process, your original passport will be retained by the Chinese Embassy, and you will also need to visit the embassy for biometric verification. During this period, while your Tibet Visa application is being processed, you will have the opportunity to do sightseeing tours around Kathmandu. We will apply your Tibet Group visa today, if not possible (or if late arrival), will do next day.

Overnight at Kathmandu.

Day 02 : Kathmandu Sightseeing with Patan Durbar Square(B).

After the breakfast, about half an hour's drive from your hotel will see you at the heart of Patan or Lalitpur city. One of the three major cities of the Kathmandu valley, Patan is known for the arts and architecture in its streets, monuments, and temples. The Patan Durbar Square is your first destination here. Some of the highlights of the Durbar (Palace) region are the beautiful Krishna Mandir, Bhimsen and Vishwanath Temples, and beautiful courtyards. Also, visit the Tibetan Refugee camp and painting shops while you are in Patan.

Visit the Ason Market and Thamel area before returning to the hotel. Overnight at Kathmandu.

Day 03 : Swayambhunath Temple and Chandragiri hill by cable car

The first day in Kathmandu begins with sightseeing around Swayambhunath Stupa. Have breakfast and then, we head towards the stupa. This stupa is popularly known as 'Monkey Temple'. Enjoy the breathtaking views of the Kathmandu Valley from the hilltop. In the surroundings of the Stupa, there are numerous Buddha statues, a big Vajra, small chaityas, a small museum, and monasteries. You can see many monkeys roaming around the premise. The huge spiral stupa with wisdom eyes symbol and beneath is a big white dome looks very impressive. The fragrance of butter lamps and incense creates the surrounding atmosphere more blissful.

From Swoyambhu Stupa, drive to Thankot and take a cable car ride to Chandragiri Hill. Enjoy the panoramic views of the Himalayas, Kathmandu Valley, and the surrounding countryside. Visit the Bhaleshwor Mahadev Temple and experience the spiritual atmosphere of this sacred site. Relax and rejuvenate in this tranquil setting, and take in the fresh air and sunshine.

Overnight at Kathmandu

Day 04 : Pashupati Temple, Boudha Stupa, Bhaktapur Durbar Square and Nagarkot(B)

You will visit some destinations in Kathmandu before heading to Bhaktapur today. After breakfast head towards the Pashupatinath Temple. A quick drive will take you to this Hindu temple complex on the banks of the Bagmati River. Dedicated to God Shiva, you can explore around 500 small and big temples in this area. Next, we will take a brief drive to the Boudhanath Stupa. Explore the Tibetan-inspired streets and try some popular snacks in Boudhanath.

From Boudhanath, it is about an hour's drive towards Bhaktapur city. The name Bhaktapur translates as 'The city of devotees' and it is the more culturally preserved of the three cities in Kathmandu. The brick-paved alleys lead us to Bhaktapur Durbar Square. The fifty-five windows palace, Nyatapola Temple, and Pottery square are the main attraction of the Bhaktapur tour.

Bhaktapur Durbar Square Opening Hours- 7:00 AM to 7:00 PM on all days.

In the evening take a short drive to Nagarkot, a small town on the hills of the outskirts of Bhaktapur. Overnight at Nagarkot.

Day 05 : Tour of Dhulikhel with Namobuddha monastery and Panuti village.

We will start our day early with a beautiful sunrise view over the Mountains from Nagarkot. An observatory tower here at an altitude of 2,175 meters gives us the perfect view of the Himalayas. Starting from Mt. Dhaulagiri in the west we can have a great view of Everest (8,848m.), Lhotse (8,516m.), Cho Oyu (8,201m.), Makalu (8,463m) in a clear sky from here. After the sunrise, we will return to the hotel for breakfast.

From Nagarkot, we will drive for a couple of hours out from the valley and visit the Namobuddha monastery. The monastery is one of the most beautiful ones in Nepal with many legends linked to it. We can take a short nature walk in the premises and enjoy the landscape from Namobuddha. If you are here from March to May, you can get a fantastic view of blooming Rhododendron forests surrounding the area. Next, we will head for the ancient town of Panauti. Also, one of the most preserved cultural areas near Kathmandu, Panauti showcases you the traditional farming lifestyle of the locals. We will visit some of the old temples here and head towards Dhulikhel, specially for Mountain Views. In the evening, drive back to Kathmandu.

Overnight at a hotel in Kathmandu.

Day 06 : Fly to Bhutan and drive to Thimphu

*Your Tibet group visa will be ready. Collect your original passport and visa from Chinese embassy of Kathmandu and start the remaining tour.

We have a morning flight to Bhutan today. After leaving Kathmandu, a brief flight will take us to Paro Airport. Your Bhutanese guide will meet you at the airport and you will take a short drive (1.15 hour) to Thimphu. Along the ride, the guide will brief you through the Bhutan part of the tour.

Stop halfway on the way to the Paro-Thimphu highway, and visit the 16th-century old Tachogang Lhakhang temple. The temple means the hill of the excellent horse. You need to cross an old bridge to visit the temple. From the bridge, enjoy the scenic views of the villages.

After arriving at the Bhutanese capital, you will explore some of the major attractions around Thimphu today which include the Giant Buddha Dordenma Statue, Third King Memorial Stupa, National Library of Bhutan, Bhutan Postal Museum, Folk Heritage Museum, Thimphu Dzong, Takin Zoo, and more. In the evening explore the local market and get closer to local culture and commerce.

Overnight at Thimphu.

Day 07 : Thimphu to Punakha excursion- back to Thimphu (150 km.)

Head towards Punakha after breakfast today. The drive is about two and a half hours long and passes through the Beautiful Dochula Pass. We will stop at the pass and spend some time at the royal botanical garden and Druk Wangyal Chortens. The pristine view of the Himalayas in clear weather is one to behold. We will continue the journey to Punakha following the stop.

The Chhimi Lhakhang temple on the way will be our first stop. This unique temple is also known as 'the temple of the divine madman'. The Punakha Dzong is next on our list. One of the most beautiful and historically significant fortresses in Bhutan, Punakha Dzong is one not to miss here. Lastly, we cross the oldest and longest Punakha Suspension Bridge where we can witness the beautiful views of the river and valleys. We will return to Thimphu after the Punakha Tour in the evening.

Overnight at Thimphu.

Day 08 : Drive to Paro and Tigers Nest Hiking & Paro valley tour

After breakfast, drive back to Paro. The Hike to Taktsang Monastery is a proven delight for travelers to experience nature and spirituality as a whole in Bhutan. The hike might be challenging for some but it truly is worth a couple of hours' hike from Paro. You can have a slow and gradual walk with breaks in the midway shops.

Once there, witness the majestic view of the pristine Taktsang monastery carved into a giant cliff. Know the legends of the great Guru Padmasambhava and explore the beautiful monastery. Also, visit the caves inside the monastery and interact with the monks there. Return from the hike and rest for a while in your hotel. Visit the beautiful Drukgyel Dzong, Paro Dzong, National Museum of Bhutan, and Kyichu Lhakhang Temple to end your Paro tour. Overnight at Paro.

Day 09 : Fly to Kathmandu (Rest or Walking tour or short Hiking)

You will leave Bhutan and return to Kathmandu through a flight. After Landing in Kathmandu you can go for some popular local activities in this lively city. Cruise through some of the markets here, and try some local cuisine and drinks. In the evening enjoy the nightlife of Thamel visiting some bars accompanied by local Music. Rest for the day or can do short hike.

Overnight at Kathmandu.

Day 10 : Drive from Kathmandu to Gyirung via Rasuwa Gadi

Our overland tour starts today from Kathmandu to Kerung/Gyirong. We will do all the necessary preparations and leave the valley following the Trishuli highway. The road is smooth in the first segment in the hills followed by some gravel segments. Similarly, we will also face some off-road portions as we get near to the Chinese border. In the way, we will stop for lunch at local settlements and continue driving in this scenic highway. After reaching Kyirung, we will have our documents checked at both Nepalese and Chinese immigration offices and drive to our hotel.

Overnight at Gyirung.

Day 11 : Kerung/Gyirong to Shegar/Rongbuk Monastery (Everest Base Camp)

You will start for the longest and most scenic drive of the whole trip to the Rongbuk monastery near EBC. The landscape shift is wondrous as we shift into more barren and snow-covered regions from here. We will drive pass Pelkutso lake and a vast grassland in the first portion of today. Taking small short stops to admire nature and view, we will continue our drive to the Gyawula Pass (5200 m). A bit windy, but absolutely beautiful, we can view the Himalayas clearly from here. From the pass, it is a couple of hours to reach Rongbuk monastery.

Important Note:

- Accommodation in Rongbuk/EBC is very limited. Since Rongbuk is a remote area, expect the accommodation to be very basic. There are a few guesthouses that provide twin-sharing rooms with bunk beds and the bathroom is also outside the guesthouse.
- In Shegar/Tingri, The best options are locally 3-star hotels with attached bathrooms. We will provide you with the highest one. We recommend to stay in Shegar instead of Rongbuk. Shegar to Rongbuk Monastery distance 100KM with 2 hours driving.
- If you will stay at Shegar/Tingri, next day early morning drive to Rongbuk Monastery to view sunrise with Mt. Everest then drive to Shigatse.

Overnight at Shegar or Rongbuk Monastery.

Day 12 : Rongbuk to Shigatse via Tingri

We will wake up early for a breathtaking sunrise of a lifetime from the Rongbuk monastery over Mt. Everest. After this amazing experience, we will explore the monastery premises for a bit before continuing our road journey to Shigatse. We will be traveling in a bit bumpy road for the first part of the trip. From here we will stop at the small Tingri town. The views of Cho Oyu and Everest is majestic from the town here. Next, it is a couple of hours of highway drive to the G318 National highway milestone (5,000 m) in Lhatse, and there we'll take some pictures. After driving to Shigatse from Lhatse, we will freshen up and visit Tashilupo Monastery. This monastery, which is the seat of the Panchen Lama of Tibet is also one of the most significant ones here.

Overnight at Shigatse

Day 13 : Shigatse to Lhasa with Gyantse and Yamdruk Lake

Today will be the last day of driving exploration in Tibet, and we will cover many cultural destinations in the way. The road is in good condition, and we will make shortstops in the small farmer villages lying in the way. After reaching Gyantse, we will take a brief exploration tour of some majestic sites here. This heritage-rich town has a lot to offer, and we will visit the Perklor Monastery, Kumbum stupa, and Gyantse Old Street here. The next portion of the drive takes us beside the Holy Yamdrok Lake (One of the three significant holy lakes in Tibet). We will also enjoy the views of Manak Dam Lake and Korola Glacier before reaching Lhasa in the evening.

Overnight at Lhasa.

Day 14 : Lhasa Exploration (B)

You will kick off the Lhasa tour with a visit to the beautiful Potala Palace. Located within a short drive this palace was the home of Dalai Lamas, the spiritual leader of the Tibetan people. Essential Information

1. Location of Nepal, Tibet and Bhutan

Nepal, Tibet, and Bhutan are amongst the most sought after destinations constituting the best shades of the Himalayas. A trip covering all three is ideal for nature and culture admiring individuals all around the world.

- Tibet is the most extensive of the three predominantly lying in the Tibetan Plateau in China and composes most of the northern and western fraction of the great Himalayan range.
- Sharing the border with Tibet in its west is Nepal with diverse geography and culture and lifestyle inspired by China and India surrounding this landlocked country in South Asia.
- Bhutan is a small Himalayan nation and is least populated of the three to the south of Tibet and enclosed on the remaining side by the Indian states of Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, and West Bengal.

2. Recommended routes to take for traveling between Nepal, Tibet, and Bhutan

One can start their journey from any of these three places, however, starting from Nepal is considered as most beneficial as Tibet and Bhutan both are easily accessible through flight and overland drive from here. Here are three routes to consider for the Nepal Bhutan and Tibet Tour.

Route 1: Starting from Nepal- 'The Best and Hassle-free Route

- Your route commences with a tour of Nepal and from here you can select either Bhutan or Tibet as your next destination. You will return back to Kathmandu and you can choose to Fly or drive to the next destination. We will handle your visa and permits completely if you choose this route to travel.
- Starting from Nepal is your best option because
 - There are no direct flights from Tibet to Bhutan and vice versa
 - Applying for the travel permits and Visa for both Tibet and Bhutan is easier from here.
 - The flights to Bhutan run daily or at least 4-5 times a week in low tourist season. Tibet flight has resumed after pandemic (COVID-19) as well; 3 direct flights from Kathmandu to Lhasa (Tibet) every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. - Updated April 05, 2024

- Acclimatizing is better through this route in comparison with the other two
- After completion of the tour, you can depart back home through either Bhutan or Tibet.

Route 2: Arrival in Bhutan (Fly to Nepal- flight/drive to Tibet)

- The route commences after landing in Paro, Bhutan. Paro airport is approachable from Bangkok, New Delhi, Dhaka (Bangladesh), Singapore or Kathmandu (Nepal). You can arrive here through any of the above nations after taking the availability of flights under consideration.
- After exploring the planned places and sites in Bhutan, you will either fly to Kathmandu from Paro. The flight is about an hour long and runs daily (4-5 times a week off-season). After arrival, you will visit the destinations as mentioned in the selected itinerary in Nepal.
- Upon completing the Nepal portion of the trip, you will fly Tibet or drive to Tibet from here. The overland tour extends to three extra days going through Rongbuk/Everest Base Camp, Shigatse, and Gyantse cities of Tibet. You will continue the exploration and depart after the conclusion of the tour from Tibet.
- We will take care of all the necessary visas Chinese \(Tibet\) visa will be applied on your first day in Kathmandu, It needs a minimum of 4 working days to get.

Route 3: Arrival in Tibet (Flight/drive to Nepal - Flight to Bhutan (via Kathmandu))

- The route commences after reaching Lhasa, Tibet. You can arrive here through flights or from the trains connecting Tibet from different cities of China.
- After exploring the planned places and sites in Tibet, you will fly to Kathmandu or drive to Kathmandu (It is also one of the best overland tours of Asia). After arrival, you will visit the destinations as mentioned in the selected itinerary in Kathmandu.
- You will fly to Bhutan and the flight takes place daily (in some selected conditions 4-5 times a week in minimum). The flight is about 75 minutes long and takes you to Paro Airport in Bhutan. You will continue the exploration and depart after the conclusion of the tour from Bhutan.
- With this route, you must manage the Chinese Visa by yourself prior to the tour from your respective nation. We will manage your Bhutan visa in advance and Nepal visa will get upon your arrival in Kathmandu (Nepal).

3. Documents to own Before/During the Travel

1. Tibet Travel Permit (TTP)

TTP is mandatory for visitors of any nation entering or exploring Tibet. You must have a valid passport and Chinese Visa to apply for this permit and it can be done only through registered tour operators (Individual unobtainable). It's best to apply 2-3 weeks before the trip for assurance of the timely arrival of TTP.

2. Chinese Visa

Chinese Visa is compulsory to enter any region of China or Tibet. There is no visa on arrival (VOA) service so each traveler must apply for it from the Embassy of the People's Republic of China, before entering mainland China from your home.

3. Bhutan Visa

As the Bhutanese embassy is only present in five nations around the world, you will have to book through a registered travel agency for the visa. After the tour is booked, the agency will have the visa processed with the Bhutanese immigration department in Thimphu, Bhutan.

4. Nepalese visa (Visa on Arrival)

Apparently, you can pre-process for the Nepalese Visa from the Nepalese embassy from your nation or get a visa on arrival in the TIA, Kathmandu (Tribhuvan International Airport) or any land borders entering from India/China. The process is quick and easy.
