Trip Overview

The 16-day Chengdu Tibet Nepal Bhutan tour is a meticulously designed vacation package that captivates visitors with its scenic natural, cultural, and spiritual aura. The journey through the hills of authentic Chinese art to the barren shades of Tibet is mesmerizing. Traveling through the stone-patched alleys of Nepal to the magical valleys of Bhutan is beyond magical. Each destination welcomes visitors with pristine beauty wrapped with heavenly surprises. To experience the untouched and pure culture, tradition, and the art of living, Asia Experiences presents you with this tour of a lifetime.

Begin with Chengdu, the capital of Sichuan province, fondly called the 'Country of Heaven' due to its plains. UNESCO recognized it as a city of gastronomy because of its rich cultural reflection. It is home to the Giant Panda, the national treasure. The Chengdu Research Base of Giant Panda Breeding allows visitors to spend a day more closely with the Giant Pandas and their daily routine. Observing these Giant Pandas is fun and relaxing. Learn more about the Giant Pandas during a visit to the Breeding Centre. The ship tour to the 71 m ancient Leshan Giant Buddha is magnificent. Listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, it is by far the tallest pre-modern statue in the world. Fine art flourished during the period of the Five Dynasties showcasing the artistic beauty of the town in its aesthetic arrangement. Fly to the 'Roof of the World'-Tibet from here.

Experience the vast geographical and cultural diversity within the same nation. Traveling around the majestic monasteries and palaces brings a sense of warmth to Tibet. The Potala Palace premises, the shrines in Jokhang temple, and the vibrant Barkhor Street, all mesmerize the visitors. The fine Tibetan artwork and the aesthetic architectural structures bound you to appreciate them. Appreciate the people, local cuisine, lifestyle, and spiritual vibe, and embrace the history and devotion in Tibet.

Nepal, a small but beautiful landlocked nation, delights visitors with varied landscapes and culture. Within a short tour, experience the diversity of rich cultural heritages and the bliss of natural scenery. Every street preserves its hidden stories; explore them alongside the friendly locals surrounding you every time. Don't miss out on trying delicious local cuisine.

Bhutan, the hidden Himalayan nation is hardly influenced by modernization and still preserves its authentic culture and traditions. A country that prioritizes Happiness over GDP allures visitors with its pure heart and friendly gestures. The abundant Dzongs and fortresses with impressive architecture showcase the country's deep inclination in arts and architecture. The spiritual aura attained during a visit to the monasteries is cherished for a lifetime. Bhutan is a perfect gateway for exploring from the trails to Tiger's Nest to the pearl of Paro Valley, walking through the rice fields, and savoring Bhutanese cuisines.

Your Journey day by day

Day 01 Arrival in Chengdu

*Please note that travelers need to obtain a China visa in their home country and collect the Tibet Travel Permit. This permit will be provided in hard copy at your hotel in Chengdu.

After your arrival in Chengdu, you will be approached by our representative. He/She will lead you to your hotel from the airport. Chengdu is the capital of the Sichuan Province in Western China. You will have a short briefing and orientation about this whole tour of your hotel. After some rest today you can head out for a short stroll around your hotel. If you have enough spare time today, you can take a short walk exploring the ancient Jinli street. You can try some of the favorite local snacks here. Overnight at a hotel in Chengdu.

Day 02 Chengdu Tour with Panda base and Leshan Buddha

Today, visit two iconic sites in Sichuan Province. Begin your adventure at the Chengdu Research Base of Giant Panda Breeding, a renowned sanctuary established in 1987. This non-profit facility is dedicated to the protection and care of giant pandas, offering visitors a chance to learn about their conservation efforts while observing these lovable creatures in a naturalistic setting.

Next, head to Leshan City, and visit the awe-inspiring Leshan Giant Buddha. Standing 71 meters tall, this UNESCO World Heritage site is a masterpiece of ancient engineering. Construction began in 713 during the Tang Dynasty and took over 91 years to complete. Marvel at its immense scale and rich history as you wrap up this unforgettable experience. Overnight in Chengdu.

Day 03 Fly to Lhasa and rest for acclimatization

We will take a flight to Tibet today after our breakfast in Chengdu. This flight provides us with some of the magnificent views of Landscape over China. After Landing in Lhasa, you will head straight to your hotel. After some snacks, you can rest for the day here. In the evening, try visiting the local markets of Lhasa and experience the local art of trading. Overnight in Lhasa.

Day 04 Lhasa Sightseeing Potala and Norbulingka Palace

We will begin the Sightseeing tour of Lhasa, the capital of Tibet today. Kick start the day with a warm Tibetan tea in your hotel. Today's tour constitutes of two significant attractions and some brief stopping in the other destinations. We will visit the former ruling seat of the Dalai Lamas of Tibet, the Potala Palace first today. Potala Palace is an architectural masterpiece, and one can explore the vibrant Tibetan Art and culture here. In the palace premises, you can visit the grand chapels, large courtyards, staterooms, and beautiful gardens. The artistic decorations, sculptures, old paintings, murals and other components of the Palace is mesmerizing here as well. We will head next to visit Norbulingka Palace, the Summer Palace of Dalai Lamas.
