Your Journey day by day

Day 01 Arrival in Chengdu

*Please note that travelers need to obtain a China visa in their home country and collect the Tibet Travel Permit. This permit will be provided in hard copy at your hotel in Chengdu.

After your arrival in Chengdu, you will be approached by an Asia experiences guide. He/She will lead you to your hotel from the airport. Chengdu is the capital of the Sichuan Province in Western China. You will have a short briefing and orientation about this whole tour of your hotel. After some rest today you can head out for a short stroll around your hotel. If you have enough spare time today, you can take a short walk exploring the ancient Jinli street. You can try some of the favorite local snacks here. Similarly, you also have an option to visit the Sichuan Opera house and enjoy some cultural show in the evening. Overnight at a hotel in Chengdu.

Day 02 Chengdu Tour

After your breakfast today, we will head towards the Chengdu Research Base of Giant Panda Breeding here. This center is one of the most visited tourist destinations in Chengdu and holds a significant role in the conservation of Giant Panda in the world. Home to more than 100 giant Pandas, you can enjoy some time here viewing them in their habitat of bamboo forest. You can watch the activities of baby pandas and the female Pandas nursing their babies. In a different section here, you can learn about different scientific facts about these adorable Pandas. From here, we will head towards the Wenshu Temple, one of the significant Spiritual Buddhist temple in the city. Here, you can enjoy walking in the peaceful path and admire the architecture of the Temple and premises. Chengdu is one of the most relaxed vacation destinations of China, and you will have plenty of leisure activity destinations throughout the tour. In the evening, try some massaging sessions and end the day with an energizing organic tea. Overnight in Chengdu.

Day 03 Fly to Lhasa and rest for acclimatization

We will take a flight to Tibet today after our breakfast in Chengdu. This flight provides us with some of the magnificent views of Landscape over China. After Landing in Lhasa, you will head straight to your hotel. After some snacks, you can rest for the day here. In the evening, try visiting the local markets of Lhasa and experience the local art of trading. Overnight at Lhasa.
