Trip Overview

The Nepal Bhutan Myanmar tour is a perfect amalgamation of rich culture and nature that connects travelers across 3 amazing nations in Asia. A fabulous opportunity for travelers seeking natural, cultural, spiritual, and adventure wonders to experience all in these 3 incredible nations. This multi-country tour is bound to captivate travelers with its cultural and natural diversity and uniqueness.

The landlocked Himalayan nation Nepal is abundant with rich cultural and natural heritages. The towering majestic snow-capped peaks, lush green valleys, picturesque landscapes, several ancient temples and monasteries, numerous national parks, and its diverse flora and fauna, all allure travelers. The sunrise views from numerous viewing points and adventure activities like Paragliding, Jungle Safari, Boat Riding, etc. spark excitement among travelers. Embrace Nepal's natural beauty, the coexistence of cultural and religious harmony, and incredible ancient architecture including UNESCO World Heritage sites.

Another Himalayan landlocked nation Bhutan, also known as the Last Shangri La welcomes travelers to its realm of spirituality. This magical nation boasts abundant traditional Dzongs, monasteries, fortresses, and Lhakhang with impressive architectural structures. The mountain range views from Dochu La Pass, iconic landmarks with a hike to popular Paro Taktsang (Tiger's Nest), lush greenery, and a clean, peaceful, and spiritual environment ensure a pleasurable travel experience.

The beautiful Southeast Asian nation Myanmar is also popular as the 'Garden of the East'. The country, abundant with ancient temples and pagodas mesmerizes visitors with its centuries-old impressive colonial architecture. The rich cultural tradition is perfectly blended with the nation's cultural heritage which showcases great symphony. The ancient city of Bagan itself is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The serene Inle Lake, a hike to Mount Popa, an excursion to tribal villages, and beautiful Yangon, and Mandalay cities imbue authentic and diverse experiences in one journey.

Your Journey day by day

Day 01 Arrive at Kathmandu

Our staff will receive you at the TIA airport after landing. A brief welcome session and you will be accompanied to the hotel. Take some rest and refreshments at the hotel or an evening walk around will be good too.

Day 02 Sightseeing at Kathmandu

Today's Heritage tour of Kathmandu showcases the main UNESCO world heritage sites of the valley. Our First destination today following breakfast will be the Hindu Temple of Pashupatinath. This shrine complex is one of the most significant in Asia dedicated to the major Hindu god 'Shiva'. The immense spiritual feeling is intact in the banks of the holy Bagmati River. Witness Hindu cremation process, an eye-opening spiritual journey while you are here. You can explore over 500 small and big shrines, sculptures, Lingams, and temples while you are here.

A quick drive will take us from here to the beautiful Buddhist dome of Boudhanath Stupa. The biggest stupa of Nepal, Boudhanath is also the core of Tibetan Buddhism in the Kathmandu valley. Enjoy the Tibetan inspired crafts, paintings, and foods in the surroundings of Boudhanath. The Basantapur Durbar Square is the next site to visit reachable within a short walk of your hotel. This was the ancient ruling palace for the Malla kings of Kathmandu. Enjoy the vast courtyards, magnificent monuments, stoneworks, sculptures, and temples while you are here.

We will end our day with a short drive to 'the monkey temple' or Swyambhunath Temple. A quick drive followed by a short hike will lead you to this Buddhist temple situated at a hill. Soak in a beautiful view of the sunset over the valley from the temple with devotees and visitors alike.
