Your Journey day by day

Day 01 : Arrive in Kathmandu

You are welcomed at the Tribhuvan International Airport upon your arrival in Kathmandu. You are transferred to the luxurious hotel Dwarika's and take some rest. Later, the guide briefly describes the program schedule. In the evening, stroll the nearby places or enjoy quality time at a hotel.

Day 02 : Full-day Sightseeing in Kathmandu Valley

Exciting full-day sightseeing around Kathmandu Valley begins after breakfast. A visit to Kathmandu Durbar Square is truly a magical experience. Taleju Temple, Kalbhairav Temple, Kasthamandap, Ashok Binayak Temple, Living Goddess Kumari, Hanumandhoka, Gaddi Baithak, and Shiva Parbati Temple are some of the major attractions in the vicinity of the Durbar Square. After a mesmerizing cultural heritage tour, the next destination is Swayambhunath Stupa. It is fondly called "Monkey Temple". A wonderful bird-eye view of Kathmandu city from the top of the stupa. The big vajra, the monasteries, the museum, the monkeys, the chaityas, and the Harati Mata temple are some of the attractions here.

From here, a visit to Patan Durbar Square. The oldest city Patan among the three cities is popular for its artistic heritage. The city is culturally, historically, and artistically significant. The great architectural examples can be seen in temples, shrines, wooden carvings, and stone carvings. The Golden Temple, Golden Window, Krishna Mandir, Hiranya Varna Mahavihar, and Patan Museum are beautiful attractions in the vicinity of Patan Durbar Square. Return to a hotel after sightseeing around UNESCO-listed World Heritage Sites.

Day 03 : Full-day Sightseeing in Kathmandu Valley

After breakfast, we continue our Kathmandu Valley sightseeing tour to the UNESCO-listed World Heritage Sites. A visit to the sacred Hindu temple Pashupatinath situated at the bank of river Bagmati. The pagoda-style temple is a great example of Hindu architecture. The copper roofs are covered with golden covering and four doors are covered with silver sheets. The Shiva Linga is the main attraction and only Hindus are allowed to enter the temple. Other travelers can tour around the premises of the temple. The beautifully carved wooden sculptures, several small temples, and the huge golden statue of Nandi

(Shiva's bull) are some highlights.

From there, a visit to the Bouddhanath Stupa. A famous Buddhist stupa preserving and promoting Buddhist culture and tradition in a meaningful way. The beauty of this stupa's architecture is comprised of five elements: air, water, earth, fire, and space. A semi-circle-shaped stupa comprises relics and remains of Buddha. A pleasant and calm feeling in the vicinity of the stupa. We end our tour by visiting Bhaktapur Durbar Square. Bhaktapur is the smallest district of Nepal abundant with cultural and religious heritages. The Durbar square is aesthetically beautiful and a true example of arts and crafts. There are 33 temples in the vicinity of Durbar Square. This ancient city is every traveler's delight. Return to a hotel after collecting some sweet memories.

Day 10 : Trek to Taktsang Lhakhang (Tiger's Nest)

A hike to Bhutan's most historic and culturally significant Taktsang Lhakhang. It is widely known as Tiger's Nest. In Bhutan's itinerary, it is one of the prime landmarks. Tiger's Nest is perched on the Cliffside of upper Paro valley. Buddhist Guru Rinpoche is believed to have meditated in this cave to subdue the evil spirit and hence holds great significance. The stunning view of Paro Valley from the monastery. Return to a hotel.

After lunch, explore the Paro Rinpung Dzong famous as the “Fortress of Heap of Jewels”. The artistically wonderful dzong has some attractions such as courtyards, temples, administration offices, and Bhutanese-themed wooden carvings. Above Rinpung Dzong, visit Ta Dzong i.e. National Museum of Bhutan. This cultural museum houses specimens of Bhutanese art, bronze statues, and paintings. Then, visit the artistically beautiful Kyichu Lhakhang. The culturally significant temple is the most beautiful and oldest in Bhutan. We end the tour by visiting the ancient ruins of Drukgyel Dzong. Enjoy the picturesque village and explore the dzong. If you wish to do some souvenir shopping, you can do it. You may also try stone bathing for relaxation. Spend last night enjoying some Bhutanese cuisine.
